

Promote integrated agricultural solutions for optimal use of land and water resources

The land, feed and water requirements of livestock do not need to compete with the food needs of people.